U.S. CONCESSIONS IN MARITIME PROVINCE!

PERRY IN SEMI-FINAL AND A LIKELY FINALIST

JACK CRAWFORD THROUGH

U.S. TENNIS TITLE

Forest Hills, Sept. 8.
With the removal of Ellsworth Vines, F. J. Perry, the last English competitor, appears to have a comparatively easy path to the final of the American National singles tennis championship.
He advanced a further stage to-day, reaching the semi-final at the expense of Adrian Quist, Australia. He won the match with marked ease, three sets being sufficient.

Quist, who yesterday put Wilmer Allison out of the competition, was completely subdued by Perry, whose controlled speed off the ground and safe volleying gave him an almost runaway victory.

The Australian, played with a certain amount of resource in the first two sets, but he was invariably trailing, and once Perry had won the opening sets, Quist collapsed and lost the third to love.

LONG AND SHORT OF IT.

In another quarter-final, Stoeffen, the tallest competitor in the championship, opposed Bryan M. Grant, the smallest player, and conqueror of Vines. Stoeffen won after a keen game, thereby qualifying to meet Perry in the semi-final.

Grant played a very plucky game, and led 4-1 in the first set, but he was worn down by Stoeffen's sideling driving.

Grant's energetic display was greatly appreciated by the onlookers who saw the New York exponent fall no less than 24 times in vain efforts to retrieve passing shots.

WEAK ON BACKHAND.

Stoeffen was amazingly weak on the backhand, and if Grant had been able to take advantage of this, the result would have been much different.

As it was Stoeffen netted no less than 35 out of 41 backhand shots, and extraordinary percentage of errors for a first class player.

The scores indicate that Grant refused to lose without offering stiff resistance. In the course of four sets no less than 45 games were played.

AUSSIE STOCK SLUMPS.

Australian stock slumped to-day. Following on the elimination of Quist, Vivian McGrath completed his match against Clifford Sutter in the fourth round and was beaten.

McGrath took the court to-day in the sound position of leading by 3 games to one in the final set. But he failed to clinch the issue and Sutter recovered to win it 3-6.

Sutter's moment of triumph was, however, brief. In the last match of the day he found himself opposed to Jack Crawford, the Australian, French and Wimbledon champion, and was swept off the court in three sets.

Sutter put up a game resistance, but was outclassed.

SHIELDS THROUGH.

Frank Shields eliminated Gregory Mangin after four stormy contested sets and qualified to meet Crawford in the semi-final.

Americans are still hoping, but the general opinion is that the finalists will be F. J. Perry and Crawford and if a great fighting finish to a great tournament is desired this would probably be the

Geneva, Sept. 8.

FOOCHOW RUMOURS

TROUBLE AMONG NINETEENTH ARMY

MORE TROOPS SENT UP

The seriousness with which the Chinese are viewing the Fukien situation is evidenced in the fact that 500 troops arrived at the Pagoda anchorage yesterday morning and have since moved up the river.

No news has been received locally from the Yenping area for three days although it is only a ten-hour run up the river by boat. It is rumoured that the 2nd (Temporary Incorporated) Division of the XIXth Route Army which is composed in the main of ex-bandits, may probably be in possession of Yenping. If this rumour is correct the former friction which has existed between the leaders of the various Divisions may be the cause of a serious concern.

CHINESE REPORTS.

Chinese reports admit that the XIXth Route Army was driven back in several places after suffering heavily casualties, but claim that reinforcements enabled all lost ground to be recovered.

The Government troops, it is stated, are now awaiting the arrival of fresh troops from the East River District of Kwangtung before launching a general attack.

AMOY ALARM.

Amoy, Sept. 9.
Private information from Foochow yesterday indicates serious condition prevailing near the Fukien capital and that the Communist bandits have captured Kutien near Foochow and serious hostilities between them and the troops occurred at Pei Ning. When the a.s. Hal Ning arrived here yesterday it brought 2,000 Foochow refugees.

STOCK MARKETS DULL

A WEAK TENDENCY DISPLAYED

London, Sept. 8.
The Stock markets ended weak with a dull period. British Government stocks showed little change, with war loan 3½ per cent. at 100 5/16, but most markets showed a weak tendency.—British Wireless.

VATICAN AND THE NAZIS

BERLIN CONCORDAT RUMOUR

ROME REFUSAL TO RATIFY

Vatican City, Sept. 8.
A sensation has been caused here by a report from Berlin declaring that the Vatican has declined to ratify the Concordat recently concluded with Germany.

The report is now being treated with reserve however.

It is stated in the first place that the Concordat was negotiated when the Nazi policy towards the Catholic Church was much more violent than it is to-day.

Secondly, it is pointed out that refusal to ratify the Concordat would be in contradiction to His Holiness the Pope's pacific and conciliatory policy.

AN HOUR'S TALK.

On the other hand, it is known that Cardinal Pacelli, the Secretary of State, has had an hour's conversation with the Pope, which is most unusual and it is believed to have caused the Pope's distress with the whole German situation.

It is believed, however, that the Pope will sign the Concordat, which is equivalent to ratification, and a rupture between the Vatican and Germany is not expected.—Reuter.

HITLERITE DOGMA NOW CHURCH LAW.

Berlin, Sept. 8.
Nazi dogma will become the Church Law of Prussia as a result of the Nazi Church Senate approving of the 20 motions adopted by the General Synod.

Seven out of the 12 general superintendents of the Protestant Church, who voted against the motion to debar non-Aryans from holding church office or preaching, have been pensioned off. The other five have been retained pending the appointment of 10 Bishops.

Seven non-Nazi members of the Supreme Church Council have also been pensioned off.—Reuter.

FRUSTRATION OF OTTAWA AIMS

PROTEST BY CANADIAN GOVERNMENT

London, Sept. 8.
The Import Duties Advisory Committee, at the request of the Government, have undertaken to enquire into representations made by the Canadian Government to the effect that preferences granted to Canada by the Agreement on Timber negotiated at Ottawa are nearly to be frustrated by the creation and maintenance of timber prices through state action by the U.S.S.R.

Canadian timber interests have formulated a detailed statement of their case which has been forwarded to the Advisory Committee.—British Wireless.

BONHAM STRAND FIRE

TIMELY ARRIVAL OF BRIGADE

An outbreak of fire at No. 125, Bonham Strand East threatened serious damage just before eleven o'clock this morning.

The blaze started among a pile of shavings beneath the stairs and flared up alarmingly for some minutes.

Fortunately, the alarm was quickly given and the Fire Brigade arrived before the outbreak had taken a firm hold. It was subdued within five minutes.

The outbreak was extinguished with what is known as a "free-aid" appliance, viz. a machine carrying 25 gallons of water and fitted with a small pump, which has been found useful in many cases.

COMMUNIST PERIL IN CUBA

MUCH ANXIETY

POLITICAL PARLEY FAILS

DR. CESPEDES REJECTED

Havana, Sept. 8.
Troops are having an anxious time preventing the Communist demonstrations from developing more gravely, and some apprehension is felt in foreign circles.

The Revolutionary Council seems to have accepted the fact that the revolt is getting out of control and are anxiously conferring with the leaders of other parties with a view to the formation of a responsible government which will obtain widespread support.

Negotiations have, however, proved abortive hitherto and meanwhile the situation is growing worse. It is learned that the Revolutionary Council has blankly refused to consider the re-instatement of Dr. Cespedes y Orta as President.

CRUISER DOES NOT STAY.

Meanwhile, considerable surprise was occasioned when the new American cruiser Indianapolis put into Havana to-day and left soon afterwards for Panama.

Mr. Claude Swanson, Secretary of the Navy, was on board, but he did not land. It is understood that he is being kept in close touch with the situation by the wireless installation erected at the American Embassy by Marines.

PRESIDENT WATCHFUL.

A message from Washington states that President Roosevelt has cancelled his week-end holiday cruise in order to watch the Cuban situation.—Reuter.

BAGDAD MOURNS KING FEISAL

Bagdad, Sept. 8.
The new King of Iraq, Ghazi the First, who was crowned at ten o'clock this morning, soon after news of the death of King Feisal had been received, is very popular among the people and no complications are expected from the tragic occurrence.

The last words of the late King are reported from Berne to have been as follows:

"I am satisfied that I have done my duty. I have served the nation with all my power. My hope is that after I have gone, the nation will be happy, strong and united."

Bagdad is to-night a city of mourning. All lights in the city (Continued on Page 9.)

BORDER INCIDENT

AUSTRIAN DESERTIONS ALLEGED

"HAIL HITLER!"

Munich, Sept. 8.
A rather startling development in the Austro-German situation occurred to-day which is not likely to improve feeling.

An Austrian lieutenant and second lieutenant, in full uniform, walked into the Nazi headquarters at Munich to-day.

They declared that they had deserted their regiments at Salzburg and had crossed the frontier and walked to Munich.

They explained that they were among the last batch of Austrian troops that have been sent to the Austro-German frontier.

BLOOD-BROTHERS.

"We feared," said one of them, "that the circumstances were such that we should soon be obliged to fire upon our German blood brothers."

They added that the majority of Austrian officers were supporters of Hitlerism.—Reuter.

LIKELY NANKING CHANGES

MR. T. V. SOONG AS PREMIER

Nanking Sept. 9.
It is considered a certainty now that important changes will be made in Nanking National Government with a Fifth Kuomintang Plenary Session in November.

Foremost among the changes will probably be the election of Mr. T. V. Soong, the Finance Minister, as Chairman of the Executive Yuan, a post similar to Premier in a foreign cabinet.

Mr. Lin Sen will remain as President of the National Government Council, while the civilian leader and Leftist, Mr. Wang Ching-wai, will be elected Chairman of the Central Executive Council.

The Executive Council's standing committee will continue to have three members, including Mr. Wang Ching-wai, the others being Marshal Chiang Kai-shek and Mr. Ho Han-min.

HARBIN SENSATION

SOME STARTLING ALLEGATIONS

SOVIET PLAN DEFENCE

Harbin, Sept. 9.
The Harbin Times to-day contains a sensational article alleging the Soviet has been in negotiation with "a certain power" to defend her from Japan.

The article is headed:

AFRAID OF WAR

CEDING CONCESSIONS

U.S.S.R. BARRICADING HERSELF FROM JAPAN BY A THIRD POWER

SECRET NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN SLAVUTSKY AND HANSON

The article authoritatively asserts that the Soviet Government agents have been in all directions frustrating the economic and military growth of Manchukuo and has been enrolling Manchukuo officials as Communist agents with the objective of disturbing the peace and retarding progress as a safeguard against a direct collision between Japan and the U.S.S.R.

U.S. AIM

It declares that the United States Consul-General in Harbin, Mr. Hanson, has for months been negotiating with the Soviet Consul-General, M. Slavutsky, for concessions in the U.S.S.R. Maritime Province "for a certain government."

The negotiations, the article says, has at last attained results. The Soviet is now prepared to grant concessions and by so doing has achieved its purpose of befriending the Maritime Province from Japan's advance by creating a third power barricade.—Reuter.

HUGE CRICKET SCORES

LAST MATCHES OF SEASON

More phenomenal scoring marked the first-class cricket matches concluded yesterday. The Players put on 552 runs for 8 wickets against the Gentlemen and won by an innings.

Over twelve hundred runs were scored in the Scarborough match, where four centuries were obtained.

Only two more official matches are scheduled before the close of the season. Starting to-day, Mr. Lovesson-Gower's XI plays the West Indies, and starting on September 16, for four days, York shire plays the Rest.

London, Sept. 8.
Application for tenders for Treasury bills were opened to-day at the Bank of England and total of $72,205,000. The amount allotted in bills at three months was $45,000,000. The average rate per cent. accepted was 6/7.34d, as compared with 7/1.98d last week.—British Wireless.

Shek will continue to devote more of his time to the military side of the Government than to the work at Nanking, while the other considered military matters.

Picture Hats Are All the Go in Hollywood

ELIZABETH ALLAN

Hollywood.—Picture hats dot the landscape these days, every time there's any kind of gathering. And hats to match your pique, gingham or linen dresses, are all the go for casual wear.Atop a charming black linen dress, Elizabeth Allan wears a picturesque natural coloured milan, with a bright nosegay of field flowers right in front and royal blue ribbon banding the hat. Her accessories are natural coloured ones, too, sandals, purse, gloves.Benita Hume wore a black-medium brimmed straw hat, faced with pink crepe, and a black silk ensemble with pink crepe blouse and touches.Joan Crawford looks handsome in white hats. She topped medium blue slacks with a wide brimmed white linen hat with no trimming except a buckle—and she was a charming in it.

YOUR CHILDREN

By Olive Roberts Barton

"Be a good girl and I'll give you a forty cents."

"I want a fifty cents."

"Well—I'll see. But then you will have to be extra good. Remember!"Dorothy went out. She was going to be good. At least she was not going to be very bad. One thing she knew, she was going to get the money for the ice-cream come anyway. She always did.
She had a little way with her, if her mother held out, of giving very good excuses. And her lip would tremble and she'd say, "I couldn't help that, now, could I, mama?" And mama would capit-ulate and say, "Well, you tried anyway. Here's your money."

Temptation Too Great

To-day Dorothy and her mother had a difference of opinion about her going to Mary Anne's house. To go to Mary Anne's you either had to go round by the bridge which took you into traffic, or cross the creek at Pine Street by means of two old logs laid together at a steep angle.The creek was high now and she wasn't allowed to go to Mary Anne's at all. But Mary Anne's house was next door to the church and they were getting ready for a lawn fete.Dorothy wanted to see them hang up the lanterns and coloured lights.She went to the creek just to take a look. She decided to try it
—it looked very safe. Anyway, an ice-cream cone was less exciting than a lawn fete. If by some miracle she didn't get one—well,there were compensations more worth while!She started across the two crooked logs and fell into the creek. The water was not very deep but it was dirty and filled with rubbish. She got out all right but she looked as any little girl would who fell into a dirty creek. She was frightened and full of water. She ran home crying.

Disciplinary Lesson Lost

Her mother was so excited she had either to cry or scold. She scolded and added a little smacking. Then she bounced her daughter into the tub and scrubbed her. Dorothy kept up a running whimper."What's the matter now?"
"I want my money. I didn't mean to fall into the creek.""You can't have it now. You disobeyed me."After a while in fresh clean clothes Dorothy did some deep thinking. There was no money to earn now. She was practically free for the day. It was kind of nice not to have that worried feeling about being naughty.She went down to the creek and got a big boy to help her across.
She had a grand time at Mary Anne's. And she got some ice-cream anyway.Bribery always ends up this way. Children begin to weigh advantages of disobedience against the prize. Sometimes one wins, sometimes the other, but once we begin to buy children to behave
we are lost. Rewards of money, toys, candy or a movie are as distant from real obedience as the poles are apart. It just doesn't do.GLORIFYING

Powder Shade

By Alicia Hart

Powder is all right or it is all wrong! There are no happy mediums. And the wrong shade of powder spoils not only your beauty but your other cosmetics too.Powder should be the natural colour of your skin. It stands to reason, then, that the people who can wear white powder are few and far between. Unless your skin is the same shade as pure white, linen, stay away from dead white powder. It isn't natural. And naturalness should be the harmony keynote of cosmetics.Most skins have a natural rosy tone. Therefore, powder with rosy shades in it is best for the average skin. The degree of rosy tones varies, of course. The rosier the skin, the more rosy the powder should be. The term
"rosy" should not be confused with "pink."Many people imagine that they have a great deal of yellow in their skin. This is true in some cases; but, for the most part, the greatest majority of women's complexions have the rose tones underlying.Don't buy cosmetics in a place where they offer you three shades of powder from which to choose.
There should be a dozen rosy shades and, perhaps, one white and a couple yellowish or rachel tones.Try several shades on the back of your hand. Usually the backs of your hands have the same skin tones as your face. This doesn't apply, of course, if you have allowed your hands to become too tanned, red or rough.Powder is not used to change
the natural colour of your face.
It is applied to give your face a dull finish, allowing only your eyes to shine.Many a pretty girl is attracted to a mug.

Easy Money!

By Small

For the LOVE of EVE by Lucy Walling

BEGIN HERE TO-DAY

EVE HAYLES, pretty assistant to EARLE BARNES, advertising manager of Bixby's department store, married JACK RALPH, construction superintendent. He wants her to give up her job but she refuses. Eve does not want her employer to know she is married so they keep the marriage secret several months. At Christmas they announce it. They spend a brief vacation at the home of Eve's parents.

Back at the office MARVA VLAD, fashion artist, and ARLENE SMITH, stenographer, greet Eve excitedly. Eve knows that MUMA ALLEN, the new copy writer, dislikes her and is trying to cause trouble for her.

Eve and Dick invite several friends to a New Year's Eve party at their apartment. Arlene hopes to make an impression on GEORGE BLISS but Mona vanpe him.

Eve buys several expensive antiques, spending money Dick has given her to pay the rent. They quarrel.

CHAPTER XVII

About the middle of January Eve received a letter from Irene Proffitt in New York. One paragraph of that letter was destined to change the trend of events for Eve and Dick Rader.

"Since you have decided to become a business woman," Irene wrote, "don't you think you should get more for your money than the purchase of a few household gadgets you would ultimately buy, anyhow? Why don't you invest your earnings in some of the stocks that are so good now? You can build up a nice little fortune for yourself and be independent of your husband. There is such a thing as letting your money work for you, you know. And think of all the things you could do with some extra cash. How about a trip to Europe, for instance? I want to go but I certainly don't intend to spend my hard earned salary cheques on the trip. I've done pretty well during the last two years, buying low and selling high. I expect to do even better this year."

Really I wish you would get in on some of the following which have been making excellent showings—

Here Irene listed several stocks, the mere names of which were exciting to Eve. If Irene could make money from her earnings so could she, Eve reasoned.

She put the letter in her purse and turned her attention back to the lay-out on her desk. Bixby's had secured the stock of an oriental rug dealer who was retiring from business and leaving the city. The advertising office was draped with gorgeous Persian rugs and Marva was aglow with eagerness as she worked at her drawing board. Once she looked up and exclaimed, "Oh, if only I could do these in colour."

"You can have your Saruks and Bokharas," said Arlene, "but I've a yen for a room-size Chinese rug. If I ever find a man who will buy me one I'll drape myself around his neck for life."

Eve smiled as she fastened the sheets of copy together with a clip. She always felt a sense of pride when Barnes entrusted the preparation of a full page advertisement to her. To-day she was more than usually pleased. Oriental rugs heretofore had been something to write about. Now, after reading Irene's letter, they had become a definite reality. Some day she, too, might own such lovely rugs.

Her interest was aroused and she determined to follow Irene's suggestion. For the present, however, she decided to keep all this a secret from Dick. After she had made a great deal of money, she would surprise him with the news. That evening she scanned the financial pages of the newspapers and compared Irene's list with the day's ratings. Each stock showed a gain. Yes, Irene was right! It was a simple matter to make money.

But how, Eve wondered, did one go about it? She had not the slightest notion how to buy stocks and decided to ask Dick. He would not suspect that she intended to speculate.

"Dick, dear," she began, "I've heard people talking so much about buying and selling stocks. Where do they do it? I mean here, in Lake City?"

"Some of them buy through their bankers," he told her, "and some buy through stock brokers like Sloan & Sanford."

That was enough for Eve. The next day she hurried through her luncheon and crossed the square to the gray limestone building which housed the Sloan & Sanford company. She scorned the elevator and walked up the marble stairs to the second floor. Easy access was one of the features of the brokers' office. The outer door opened and close with rapidity and a stream of people seemed to be passing through. Feeling a little nervous, Eve entered, hoping no one would notice her. She was at a loss what to do next.

She had a vivid impression of stock exchange scenes during the exciting moments and expected to hear men shouting while others scurried about, all more or less wild-eyed in their feverish anxiety as the ticker clicked off figures sending their fortunes soaring.

Instead Eve saw a line of men, mostly middle-aged or elderly, seated in class room chairs with light and dark. They were quietly and intently watching the board before which a young lad dashed back and forth, cranking figures. The chief sound was the clatter of the ticker as it spit forth a constant stream of paper tape.

Eve stood, confused, until a boy approached her. "Anything I can do for you?" he questioned.

"Why—uh—is Mr. Sanford in?" Eve stammered, to her own surprise. She had known some Sanfords at school and the name had a pleasant association.

"I'm sorry. Mr. Sanford is out at lunch," the boy replied. "Will some one else do?"

"No, thanks. I'll be back later," Eve answered, relieved, and hurried out. She had not planned what to say to Mr. Sanford.

Dick had told her that some people bought stocks through their bankers. Perhaps that would be simpler. Her lunch period was over and Eve could not escape from the office until evening. Then it would be too late to go to the bank. She would have to wait until tomorrow.

But the next noon there was a pouring rain and Eve had so much unfinished work on her desk that she took time only to slip down stairs for a sandwich and a chocolate malted milk. Thus it was several days later before she felt she could spare time during her lunch hour for a conference with a banker. In the meantime she had received another pay envelope and a large percentage of its contents had been deducted, according to an arrangement with Bixby's, for apparel charged to her account.

Eve's personal finances were in a low state, yet she optimistically looked forward to making a fortune. There must be a way for her to get a foothold, she told herself, banishing from her mind any worry as to how she was to secure it. "When the time comes I'll take care of that," she thought. Eve usually waited until she had one foot on a bridge before she permitted herself to contemplate crossing it.

All bankers are not white haired, old gentlemen. When Eve found herself ushered into the office of Mr. Brown, the manager of the stock and bond department of the City Bank, her assurance left her immediately as a pair of piercing dark eyes seemed to bore through her mask of nonchalance.

He motioned her to a chair and then asked how he might help her. Eve decided it would be best to be frank and let this banker know she was a beginner who knew relatively nothing about playing the stock market.

Mr. Brown patiently explained the methods of buying and selling, both through buying outright or on margin. Margining appealed to Eve, inasmuch as there would be a quick turnover for a relatively small investment. Mr. Brown explained the hazards of the latter method but Eve characteristically refused to consider that side of the picture.

She produced the list of stocks which Irene had recommended. Some of them Mr. Brown approved.

"But why go into this?" he said scornfully, pointing to one. "Can't you see that its returns would be seasonal? In the winter you would get good dividends, but the summer slump would more than offset that profit."

"And this!" he objected. "It is buyers like yourself who know nothing about trading who have boosted such stocks to inflated prices. Insistent buying forces the stock far beyond actual value, prompted by earnings."

Eve's face flushed. Still she was convinced that Mr. Brown was giving her good advice.

"How large a sum were you thinking of investing, Mrs. Rader?" he asked. "Perhaps I could suggest a method of distribution."

"Why—why—?" Eve fumbled for words. "I haven't quite decided. But thank you so much for your advice!" She plunged on. "I'll stop in some time next week."

Once more Eve was glad to be out in the winter sunshine. Three persons she knew passed but Eve did not see them. She was late getting back to the office and knew Barnes would be sarcastic about it. It made no difference to him that she had cut short her lunch period on other days. She would get that money somehow without letting Dick know and then she would margin. When she had a good sum she would say bid goodbye to Bixby's and to Barnes.

Already her vision of a future in the field of advertising had dimmed before the excitement of this newer venture into the world of finance.

CANTON-NANKING QUARREL.

TELEGRAMS BETWEEN TWO FACTIONS

Nanking, Sept. 7. Two important telegrams which have been exchanged between Canton and Nanking leaders recently, were published this evening.

After saying that repeated queries from Canton had hitherto remained unanswered by Nanking, Southern leaders, including Chen Chi-tang, Li Tsung-jen and Tsai Ting-kai, in a telegram dated September 3, raised the following four questions:

1. Since national salvation lies in the suppression of Communism and resistance to foreign aggression, in which connexion measures have already been decided by the Kuomintang Fourth Plenary Session, it is undesirable to convene the Fifth Kuomintang National Congress in November, especially as such a conference may lead to fresh complications.

2. Civil and military authorities, as well as public organisations in all Provinces, should be allowed to nominate delegates to a joint committee, which shall hold in trust the proceeds of the American Loan and supervise the expenditure thereof.

Under this heading, the Cantonese leaders express the fear that the importation of large quantities of foreign agricultural produce will impair the interests of Chinese farmers, and emphasise the harm which will follow if the Loan is employed for unproductive purposes.

3. All documents in connexion with the Tangku Truce should be published.

4. The anti-Japanese forces in Charhar should be maintained.

Nanking's Reply.

General Chiang Kai-shek and Mr. Wang Ching-wei replied yesterday to the following effect:

1. The Fifth Kuomintang National Congress should be held in November according to Kuomintang regulations which, however, stipulate that the Conference may be postponed for a year if special circumstances render such postponement necessary. For the

FATAL ACCIDENT YOUNG CHINESE KILLED BY MOTOR BUS

Before receiving the jury's verdict of death by misadventure at an inquest held at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court yesterday afternoon, enquiring into the circumstances surrounding the death of a young Chinese, Kwan Ka-wing, the Coroner, Mr. Butters, said, "I think the evidence is that the man was not run over by the front left wheel of the motor bus, but merely wedged in under the wheels." Kwan Ka-wing was killed last month.

The jury consisted of Messrs. Fred Normington (foreman), Arthur Smith and Shi Kum-kwai.

Dr. J. B. Mackie, M.O., Kowloon Hospital, in evidence said that the deceased, Kwan Ka-wing, had been admitted to the Kowloon Hospital at 3.20 p.m. on August 19. He died ten minutes after his arrival. A post-mortem was held the next day, the body being identified by the bus driver, the conductor and Kwan Ka-wah, his employer. Externally, there were bruises and scratches on his eyelids, chin and arms. There was a lacerated wound, one inch long, on the outer side of the left elbow. Internally, the spleen was enlarged. Dr. Mackie said that death was caused by rupture of the spleen and internal hemorrhage. He thought that deceased had been knocked down but not run over by a motor bus.

Driver's Evidence.

Tsui Yung Sung, driver of bus No. 687, said that about 3 p.m. on August 19 he was driving the bus along Shanghai Street. There was another bus standing at a stop. He sounded his horn, put out his hand and passed the stationary bus at a speed of eight miles per hour. After he had passed the front of the stationary bus, a Chinese suddenly dashed out from the left-hand side of the street in front of his vehicle. Witness immediately applied his brakes but, before the bus actually stopped, the man fell under the mudguard of the front left wheel. The driver had to reverse the bus in order to let the man out from under the mudguard. Witness took the injured man to the Mongkok Police Station in the bus. Later, an ambulance took him to the Kowloon Hospital.

Mr. Butters: When you first caught sight of the man, was he running or walking?—Running.

Was he carrying anything?—No.

The conductor of bus No. 687 gave evidence of the accident, as well as the driver and conductor of the stationary bus.

Kwan Ka-wah, in evidence, said that he had known the deceased for some time and he had been employed in his grocery shop as a fooki. As far as he knew, Kwan Ka-wing could hear and see perfectly.

No Skid Marks.

Sergeant J. Serim related how he had received a telephone message about 4 p.m. on August 19 from Mongkok Police Station. He immediately proceeded to the Police Station and examined the bus. He then took the bus to Shanghai Street to see where the accident had taken place. There were not skid marks and no marks on the bus. Sergeant Serim also attended the post-mortem the following day.

The Coroner, in his summing up, said, "Gentlemen, you have heard the evidence given by these witnesses. There are no eye-witnesses of the accident except

SEVERAL AMENDMENTS TO BE MADE

Consequent upon suggestions made by the Secretary of State for the Colonies, the Industrial and Reformatory Schools Ordinance of 1932, is to be amended.

The Government Gazette to-day publishes the draft bill, which points out that among the objects of the amendment is to change the definition of "Youthful Offender" to that of "Youthful Person," this being done in consequence of suggestions by the Secretary of State, who intimated that His Majesty will not be advised to exercise his power of disallowance in respect of Ordinance 6, of 1932.

The amendment makes it clear that the children who are dealt with under section 17 of the Juvenile Offenders Ordinance, No. 1 of 1932, who are not charged with any offence and cannot therefore be regarded as offenders are excluded from the definition of "youthful offender" in the Industrial and Reformatory Schools Ordinance, No. 6 of 1932.

Section 6 deletes the word "renew," from section 17 (4) of the principal Ordinance which empowered a court making an order of detention to "renew, vary or revoke" it. The Secretary of State in his despatch of April 29, 1933, suggested that if an offender is sentenced to a definite term of detention he should be released at the end of that term unless during the detention he has committed an offence for which he can be given a further term.

ALLEGED TORTURE.

SHANGHAI WARDEN IS ACCUSED

Nanking, Sept. 8.
The Control Yuan has adopted a Bill of Impeachment, demanding the punishment of Heish Fu-tai, warden of the prison attached to the second special district court in Shanghai, for the alleged torture of two prisoners.

The warden has already been dismissed for another alleged misdemeanor.—Reuter.

the driver of the bus himself. He has given evidence that he was passing another bus, sounded his horn, (confirmed by the conductor of the stationary bus) and that after he passed the other bus, a man dashed out from the left hand side of the road. The driver immediately applied his brakes but the man collided with the front of the near left mudguard and was wedged under the wheels. You have also heard the expert evidence that a bus of this kind should be able to pull up in 10 feet if going 10 miles per hour and in 37 feet if going 20 miles per hour. Dr. Mackie gave evidence that a normal person would not have succumbed from the superficial injuries he received from the collision with the bus and that death was due to an enlarged spleen which was ruptured with the pressure. I see no reason to disbelieve the driver's story."

The jury, after consideration, returned the verdict of death by misadventure.

The reason for the wonderful popularity of the "Three Castles" Cigarettes is no mysterious, elusive secret. It may be summed up in one word—quality. With a reputation, in itself an unmistakable evidence of excellence, they have, for many years, received a measure of appreciation accorded to no other brand of Virginia Cigarettes.

"—MY NEXT CAR WILL BE A BUICK!"
WHY IS THIS HEARD EVERYWHERE?

Not just because Buick offers the best of modern low windstream styling; no draft-controlled ventilation; sturdy X-frame cross members; automatic clutch—a combination of features exclusive to Buick, BUT—

BECAUSE in the minds of motorists the world over, Buick merits its reputation for style, power, dependability and long life. It is not surprising that year after year, when each new Buick is announced, the whole world stops to see what Buick leadership has produced—what new standards of comparison have been established. And many who can afford the utmost in motoring luxury buy Buick year after year. To many others, less fortunate, Buick must remain the car they aspire to own. But to rich and poor alike, Buick is always the one standard by which all other cars, whether more or less expensive, are measured.

SOVIETS ADOPT RUGBY

GAME "CATCHES ON" AFTER TRIAL

Moscow.

Soviet Russia has just seen its first game of Rugby football—and the game has "caught on."

For a long time the arbiters of Soviet sport would not consider introducing the game. They thought it was too rough.

Now two teams, coached by an Englishman, have played the first game. The Englishman said that he thought the Russians would make excellent players as soon as they had mastered the fine points of the game.

They tackle low and fearlessly and enter into the game with remarkable enthusiasm.

In the first game the players showed a tendency to play it like basketball. They tossed the ball back and forth too much and seemed to forget that they had a right to pick it up and run with it.

One of the players has mastered the place kick but to all of them drop-kicking is still a mystery. They have also to learn the fine art of handling off.

Mantseff, president of the All-Union Collegium of Referees, explained to Reuter what the Soviet sees in the game.

"Our Rugby has a special physical culture and educational purpose," he said. "It has all the elements necessary for the forming of a brave, energetic and resourceful person. It prepares a sportsman for the labour and defence of his country. Therefore the game must be introduced into all physical culture circles."

He added that the Soviet would never take up American football because it is so brutal that scores are injured, sometimes fatally, by it every year.—Reuter.

WHEN POETS LOSE THEIR HAIR

AT AGE OF 40 SAYS POET LAUREATE

London.

The sad plight of English poets who go bald when they approach the age of 40 from trying to find rhymes has been depicted by the Poet Laureate, Dr. Masfield.

It is a distressing picture, Dr. Masfield considers, since if some solution cannot be found, British poets will either take to blank verse or be seen at their desks with a bottle of ink on one side and a bottle of hair oil on the other.

Two portraits of Swinburne in the National Gallery support Dr. Masfield's theory, one by Watts when the poet was 28, with luxuriant red hair and one by Ponsoby Staples, done later in life, where the master has a dome-like head.

Tennyson, Browning, Meredith, Hardy and Landor all provide further corroboration of this theory.

Dr. Masfield himself is getting noticeably thin on top—he has just written another long poem.—Reuter.

ROBOT NEWS BOY — ANOTHER FRENCH INNOVATION — WHAT ABOUT THE VENDERS

Paris.

Slot machines for newspapers have made their appearance at the Gare St. Lazare here.

Each machine contains a space for three different papers, and up to the present machines are limited to the nine evening papers only. Nickel coins are inserted in the slot, a handle is pulled, and the newspaper slides into a rack below.

The new machines are so popular that it has become necessary to put up a notice: "If the supply has momentarily run out, push the bottom and your money will be returned."

But people are asking: "If slot machines become general, what will happen to street newspaper vendors?" These include students who, in American collegiate fashion, are not ashamed to help pay their college fees by this occupation.

Two of these machines are being given a trial at the Baker-street and Euston stations in London.—Reuter.

"LIBERTY TOWN" TO BE MODERNISED

PEOPLE WHO LIVE IN CAVES

Lisbon.

"Liberty Town," where there are no rents, rates, taxes or by-laws, is to be modernised.

The "town" lies within the city boundaries of Lisbon. The "best people" live in caves hollowed out of the hillside, with a front door, but most of the inhabitants are content with home-made houses built of packing-cases, petrol-tins, sacking and all kinds of odds and ends held together by string or wire or nails.

There is no sanitation, no water supply, no lighting. The population consists of thieves, beggars, hawkers and those who are hiding from the police. A walk—or rather a "scramble"—through the streets of Liberty Town by day is an adventure, by night it has never been attempted by any honest citizen, nor indeed, so it is said, by the police themselves.

Unable to demolish the quarter since there is no other housing accommodation available, the City Council have now decided to give work to the unemployed by "modernizing" the town.

The work will be an arduous one for a way for pipes and drainage must be hewn through solid rock. The suggestion to use dynamite was supported by some councillors and opposed by others for the same reason—that with the first explosion "Liberty Town" itself would be blown sky-high.—Reuter.

'ASPRO' as a GARGLE for SORE THROATS

THERE are few people throughout the world who are not acquainted with the virtues of "ASPRO" in relieving pain—stopping Colds—Flu and Rheumatic attacks at inception. Many, however, do not know how to use "ASPRO" as a gargle for Sore Throats. Two "ASPRO" Tablets in four tablespoonfuls of water make a very effective gargle, acting as a powerful antiseptic for Sore Throats because of its natural germicidal qualities. The reason why "ASPRO" has such quick action in banishing so many varied complaints is because, after ingestion in the system, it is a powerful germicide and solvent of uric acid, is an anti-Pyretic or fever destroyer and is antiseptic—anti-periodic and anti-fermentative.

5 MINUTES

FOR RELIEF WITH 'ASPRO'

There is nothing indefinite about "ASPRO." Its service is QUICK—safe, effective and definite. It gives you relief in 5 to 10 minutes and then goes on to dispel or dissolve the cause of the pain, allowing Nature to effect its own cure. Furthermore, you get no harmful after-effects from "ASPRO," as it is speedily eliminated from the system a few hours after being taken. It neither dopes, deadens nor drugs.

'ASPRO' BRINGS SWEET SLEEP TO THE SLEEPLESS

There are many thousands of people who now have sweet peaceful sleep who hitherto hardly knew the meaning of a period of restfulness. "ASPRO" has brought about the transformation by its sweet soothing influence on the nerves, and breaking up of local feverish conditions. Two tablets before retiring is the usual dose.

HOW TO GIVE 'ASPRO' TO CHILDREN

Two simple methods of giving "ASPRO" to the kiddies are: (a) with little milk or (b) break the tablet up and administer in a teaspoonful of jam. The dosage is: Children 3 to 6 years, ½ tablet; 6 to 14 years, 1 tablet; 14 to 16 years 1½ tablets. "ASPRO" like any other medicine should not be given to babies under 3 years of age without medical advice.

THE HYGIENIC SANITAPE PACKING METHOD EXPLAINED.

THE 'SANITAPE' METHOD EXPLAINED.

The plant consists of the most up-to-date and efficient mechanical apparatus, including a number of 'SANITAPE' machines, which seal the tablets hygienically in specially prepared wax paper compartments.

This system is known as the modern HYGIENIC 'SANITAPE' method of packing, and because of its thoroughly protective properties, ensures that "ASPRO" retains its original high standard of purity. This should serve to commend "ASPRO" to all who appreciate the absolute necessity of purity in medicine.

The wonderful human-like 'SANITAPE' machines are one of the most ingenious and highly developed engineering triumphs of modern times. The machines wrap the tablets with unerring regularity in waxed paper, divide the paper into separate compartments, crimp each compartment so that no air can find access to the tablet, fold the tapes, and finally pass them through sprays of paraffin wax, effectively sealing the 'SANITAPE,' and rendering the tablets proof against damp, moisture and any form of contamination.

ELIMINATION OF HANDLING

The 'SANITAPE' method of packing has a distinct advantage over the crude and obsolete system of hand packing. At no time during the process of manufacturing, compressing and packing, do "ASPRO" Tablets come in contact with the human hand, therefore, contamination from this source is entirely prevented, the tablets reaching the consumer in the same perfect hygienic state as when they left the tableting machines.

What 'ASPRO' Does:

- 1 It Stops Violent Headaches in 5 to 10 minutes.
- 2 It Brings Sweet Sleep to the Sleepless.
- 3 It Relieves Rheumatism in one night.
- 4 It Relieves Children's Growing Pains.
- 5 It Saves many a Sound Tooth by Removing Toothache.
- 6 It Brings Relief without causing sickness, indigestion or a craving.
- 7 It Stops Pain without harming the heart.
- 8 It soothes away Irritability.
- 9 A hot lemon drink with 2 or 3 'ASPRO' Tablets will smash up a Cold or Flu attack in one night.
- 10 It Reduces Temperature in 5 minutes.
- 11 It can be taken at any time, in Tram, Train, at Home, at Business — anywhere — everywhere.
- 12 It gives the greatest relief ever known to women at their times of periodical depression.
- 13 It Stops the Ill After-Effects of Alcohol.
- 14 It Relieves Dengue and Malaria by reducing the fever.
- 15 As a Gargle, 'ASPRO' is wonderful for Sore Throats, Tonsillitis, etc.

RESPECTING EXPERTS

Experts in many fields have sustained some loss of prestige during the last twenty years. The World War like every great conflict at arms, destroyed the reputations of men like Lord Kitchener and exalted others. Military repute crumbled under the impact of new methods of attack; but leaders with imagination enough to grasp the meaning of the changes and to devise methods to combat them rose in stature and quickly became authorities under the stress of the times. Similarly the casualties of the depression embrace a list of financial reputations which seemed shock-proof a few years ago. Here inability to prophesy correctly and point a certain way out of distress proved to be what mechanical engineers call "yield points" under the tension of popular disappointment. Again, failure to win successive political victories discredited not a few specialists in this field. The failure of some experts to live up to the highest standards of professional honour hurt them in public regard, and the limitations of the venerated brought down many of the mighty from their seats. Yet specialists are still highly considered by intelligent persons and are, of course, vitally necessary to civilization. The world has used them from the earliest days of the division of labour. The expert is in no danger of permanently losing his place among men, though the popular mind is more aware of his limitations than it used to be. Probably too much was expected of him. His standing was not always enhanced by demands upon him for ex cathedra opinions on matters outside his field. Even inside his bailiwick, the specialist has to watch his step lest he assume that what he does not know is so. The witness stand has been the Waterloo of many a reputation for this reason. The expert's future prestige is assured, but it will be higher if he maintains the humble attitude of the natural scientist toward his work and has sympathy for the layman, while carrying on with fine mastery of technique in his chosen field. Recognition of his worth goes far beyond the mere superiority of highly individualized training and skill. His most valuable attribute is his judgment, and the use of this is so often involved with problems concerning foresight that specialists are not to be condemned for differing in their opinions when these are honestly reached. It is one thing to interpret the past and quite another to sense the best future course. The public errs when it expects experts to discern the future almost as though they were freed from human limitation. The greatest of men are usually charmingly modest about their abilities. They may, for example, respect the value of versatility, but will be hesitant to claim a degree of it inconsistent with their place

NOTES OF THE DAY

NANCHANG AFFAIR

The officers of the Nanchang are free after more than five months in the hands of Manchurian bandits and, happily, are not greatly the worse for their unpleasant experiences. It must feel good to be back amongst fellow-countrymen again, although the attitude of all three reveals nothing of melodramatic exuberance of thankfulness, pleased as they doubtless are. Five months under the conditions in which they lived is plenty of time in which to cultivate the habit of philosophy and so they appear to have used it. Theirs is a spirit which Britons admire.

A MATTER OF LUCK

Congratulations should also be extended to Captain Obata who secured their release after a host of disappointments. It might be felt that a great deal more time than was necessary was wasted before yesterday's pleasing termination of the affair, but the gendarmier officer bears no part of the responsibility. The incident perhaps affords opportunity for an interesting comparison with the developments which followed the kidnapping of Mrs. Muriel Pawley in the same region twelve months ago and encourages speculation on whether Mr. Clifford Johnson and his colleagues would not have been at liberty sooner had it been their fortune to have a woman companion. No great London journal shrieked a blood-money offering on this occasion and for all the public interest which appeared to be taken after the first fortnight, the Nanchang officers might still be with their bandit "friends." Not that serious criticism can be implied. That is the way of the world.

NAVY DAY

The Senior Service is contemplating the organisation of a Navy Day next month, a proposal which should meet with an enthusiastic reception. Few are the contacts between the Navy and the civilian community in the Colony, to their mutual loss, and if the project serves to better relations, give the Colony a better acquaintance with the work of the Navy, and at the same time illustrate that the community here is not entirely composed of stiff la-di-da prigs, the prime mover (whom we believe to be the Commodore) will earn thanks all round. There is some reason to blame the civilian when an unsatisfactory atmosphere has occasionally crept in, but it is not due to lack of appreciation of the blue jacket as a man or as a type. He is, in truth, rather admired. At bottom, the aloofness that sometimes appears arises purely from that strangely English trait of reluctance to enter into conversation with anyone without a formal introduction. The opportunity of "mixing" provided by a Navy Day would do much to remove a source of misunderstanding.

CASTLE PEAK

The scheme for developing the possibilities of Castle Peak as a bathing and week-end holiday resort deserves every encouragement. The Cafeteria is ideally situated for the purpose and in itself, with a few modifications, offers adequate facilities. There is room for an impromptu dance when the evenings are cool and what could be better when evenings are warm than an al fresco meal with, say, a tankard beside one with ice clinking the sides. The chief value of the Cafeteria will, however, be that of supplying a long-felt need on the road round the New Territories. It seems rather extraordinary that we should have had to wait so long for the provision of a properly run place of refreshment to break the long journey round the New Territories.

AUSTRIA

News from Austria is disquieting. No special importance need be attached to the alleged desertion of army officers; but the statement by Prince von Starhemberg will certainly cause special enquiries by other interested governments. The Prince announces himself as a convert to Fascism and there is talk of the creation of a dictatorship. It is not a far stride from this position to the suspicion that a roundabout way has been discovered for the union of Austria with Germany. If Austria was in way unanimously inclined, no great alarm would, perhaps, be felt among those of us who are anxious to see the world towards Anchluss or towards a dictatorship would certainly arouse the active opposition of the Socialists, with possibly serious consequences for internal peace.

as specialists. Respect for specialized knowledge and ability will increase if the expert lives up to the title held by the best of his kind, and his star will shine long and brightly in the firmament of reputations.

JAPAN'S MISSIONARY RELIGION

By E. L. ALLEN

ONE hundred years ago in a Japanese village, a simple countrywoman went about her daily work, watching over a growing family, and punctilious in her worship at the local shrine. Today she is worshipped as divine by nearly ten per cent. of the population of her native country, and missionaries go out every year to carry her gospel to the world. A short run by train or electric tram from Osaka takes the traveller to the Holy City of Tambaichi, where coolies work in the streets with the characters 'Heavenly-Principle-Teaching' on their tunics, where numerous hostels house the members of the various 'churches' at great festivals, and where a modern concrete building forms the missionary centre from which the words of this new faith go out to the end of the world!

How did all this come about? One day in 1887, there was sickness in the family, and a local priest was called in. The usual medium was not available and the mistress of the household volunteered to take her place. The incantations went forward, and she was thrown into a trance. The priest enquired in the usual fashion by what divinity she was possessed, and was staggered to receive the reply that it was no other than the Supreme Being Himself who had entered into her!

HOTCH-POTCH OF IDEAS.

Her husband, as a struggling farmer, was particularly distressed, and begged the Deity to find some more fitting lodging than a mother of four children. But his request was refused, and only when he yielded after three days of vain entreaty, was the trance dispelled and the sickness healed. Alas! his troubles had only begun. His wife showed an uncontrollable impulse towards charity, giving away to the poor first her own possessions and then those of her husband. He sought to exorcise the evil spirit, for he felt it must be such, but his wife's will under the trance was always stronger than his own. Soon after they had sold their last rice-field and pulled down the house in which they lived, he was saved from his unhappy predicament by death.

After that, the prophetess passed from beggary to persecution, and it was only by some not very creditable subterfuges that the new religion was able to avoid official suppression. When she died, it was already on its way to success, and to-day it is spoken of as Japan's most vicious cult. It claims, of course, to be an entirely new revelation. But the Western observer finds it difficult not to regard it as a hotch-potch of Shinto and Buddhist ideas. Of late it has borrowed some of the methods of Christianity. It is highly organised under a Prelate and generously supported by the faithful. The movement is under a strong central control, has a veritable army of clergy and teachers, and an elaborately graded system of 'churches', backed by auxiliaries like the T.Y.M.A. or Tenrikyo Young Men's Association.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE AND BRITISH ISRAEL

Wherein does its attraction lie? It might be compared to a compound of two movements in the English-speaking world, Christian Science and British Israel. It has an explanation of disease and it glorifies patriotism.

The soul of man—such is the Tenrikyo teaching—is like a mirror, in itself bright and clear but liable to be covered with dust. There are eight kinds of soul-dust—covetousness, nigardiness, selfishness, hatred, conceit, anger, greed, and arrogance. Disease is due to the settling on the mirror of one or other of these forms of dust; what is wrong with the body is the signal that there is something wrong with the soul; let this be 'swept clean' and all will be well. The root of diseases is in mind. There would be no disease or ailment but for errors of our minds. In her lifetime, the Foundress was credited with miracles, particularly in the curing of small-pox and the grant of painless child-birth.

PATRIOTIC APPEAL.

But its main appeal is to patriotic fervour. Tenrikyo boasts of its devotion to the national cause in war-time, and its sacred literature extols Japan as 'the root of the world', the 'elder brother among the nations', destined to teach and discipline the rest. 'This is by the Divine Order, eternal and unchanged since the first day of the creation of the universe and human life, 999,000 odd years ago.'

It must be remembered that the Foundress received her 'revelation' just as Japan was being compelled to open her ports to the West. 'The Holy City' at Tambaichi is spoken of as 'the centre of the world'; it was there that the human race was born, and thither it will return one day to pay homage to the gods. For a time Japan is in a position of inferiority—

'Unto this day foreign peoples have commanded Japan; What grief hath not the Parent suffered! But these roles will one day be reversed—'

'Though we have been used to look up to foreign powers until now, They are like branches that will simply break! When Japan has accepted Tenrikyo, she will find the world at her feet.'

'When Japan shall be empowered with the holy faith, She will pacify other peoples as seems good to her. World-rule is in store for her. Hereafter Japan shall command foreign powers. Mark it well, all of you! They have been called hitherto Japan and foreign lands; Hereafter there shall be naught but Japan!'

"All right, I'll go in and look around, but I won't rave about anything."

TRIAL OF SHENG AN PIRATES

PORT ARTHUR COURT PREPARED

JAPANESE LAWYER MAY DEFEND

Dairen, Sept. 2. Reuter learns from an official of the District Court here that trial of the five foreigners involved in the piracy of the s.s. Sheng An early in July will be held some time early in September.

Local officials have not decided yet on an exact date, but they have temporarily named the District Court in Port Arthur as the seat for the trial.

A number of local citizens who are interested in the case may yet petition the officials to have the case tried in the new District building, which was completed only last month, in Tankan, half way between Dairen City and Hoshigaura, Dairen's noted summer resort.

ACCUSED KEPT SECLUDED.

Reuter learns that the Japanese officials are agreeable to the accused having a lawyer to defend them. Should they, however, fail to name their counsel or counsels before the date of the trial, the local court will appoint a Japanese lawyer to defend them.

The buccanniers, who have been in jail in Dairen for two months now, are still kept in seclusion. No word has been received from them and no word apparently has reached them.

Officials guarding the prisoners are understood to have refused all interviews as well as gifts intended for the accused.

The pirates were charged early this month with murder and robbery, piracy being included in the latter charge.

They were arrested here on July 1 when the Chinese steamship Sheng An was run ashore and the discovery made that the vessel had been pirated and ten persons aboard it murdered.

SHENG AN REPAIRS.

The Sheng An is at present at the Manchuria Dock Company's drydock undergoing repair, which, it is estimated, will cost approximately 50,000 Yen. Temporary repairs were first made at the Nishimori Dockyard, also of Dairen, following its salvage from Hoshigaura by the salvage boat Abuma Maru of the Tokyo Salvage Company, which arrived from Japan for the purpose.

Part of the crew of the ship are in Tientsin at present, but are to return to Dairen upon the completion of repairs.

Both ship and members of the crew are expected to supply the major evidence against the accused at the forthcoming trial.

PIRACY RECALLED.

The prisoners facing trial are Captain Hugo Taudien, previously reported as Capt. Herman Taudien, aged 56, a native of East Prussia, near Tilait, alleged leader of the pirates; Heinrich Westermann, 30, Shanghai butcher and restaurant keeper, German; Arthur Gautschi, 31, Swiss silk tester, born in Austria; Walter Muller, 25, a German mechanic, last employed in Shanghai; George Schroeder, 30, a German assistant mechanic and fitter.

Their victims included the captain of the Sheng An, Boris Vikman, the first mate and his wife, all Russians, and seven Chinese seamen.

The European pirates boarded the Sheng An at Tangku on June 26 and at 40 p.m. on June 28 killed ten persons and threw their bodies overboard.

The ship was approximately 200 miles off Shanghai when it was seized. Its course was diverted towards Newchwang before being redrafted towards Dairen where the ship was beached and the five corsairs arrested by the Japanese police of this city.—Reuter.

NEW KING OF IRAQ

have been extinguished and thousands of Arabs are walking in procession through the streets, beating their breasts, wailing and chanting lamentations.—Reuter.

EDUCATED AT HARROW.

The new King of Iraq is twenty-one years old and was educated in England at Harrow.

When the late King left for Switzerland a few days ago, he appointed the Crown Prince as Regent.

In accordance with Arab custom the Emir Ghazi was proclaimed King at a simple ceremony and the Presidents of the Senate and the Chamber and Cabinet Ministers afterwards took the oath of allegiance. The public were notified by a salute of 101 guns.

King Faisal's body was to-day embalmed and will be taken from Bagdad to Brindisi, where it will be placed aboard a British cruiser and taken to Haifa, where it will be transferred to a Royal Air Force machine which will carry it to Bagdad. The cruiser will leave Brindisi on Monday.

KING'S MESSAGE.

King George has sent the following message to the King of Iraq: "The Queen and I have learnt with profound regret of the sudden and unexpected death of your illustrious father, His Majesty King Faisal, whom we so recently had the pleasure of welcoming as our guest, and we would ask Your Majesty to accept our heartfelt condolence on the grievous loss which you and your Royal House and people have sustained through this melancholy event.

At the same time, I take pleasure in offering to Your Majesty my cordial congratulations on your accession to the throne, together with my heartfelt good wishes for the happiness and prosperity of your reign."

LORD ALLENBY'S TRIBUTE.

London newspapers pay warm tribute to the late King both as soldier and as a statesman and recapitulate his brilliant share in the Middle East campaign.

Field Marshal Lord Allenby, who commanded the forces in Palestine during the war, and who was attached to King Faisal's staff during his recent State visit to London, described him as a royal friend, a charming personality and a straight forward man, a very good soldier and an able politician.

Lord Allenby added that the King was not well during his visit to England but felt that his duty called him back to Bagdad.

"I presume he sacrificed himself to his country. A king has to do that sort of thing," added the Field Marshal.—British Wireless.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

YESTERDAY'S MARKET STEADY

According to Messrs. Swan, Culbertson and Fritz, the New York market was steady yesterday. Business done 1,270,000 shares. The Wall Street Journal report on yesterday's market:

The market was dull but with a better tone and gains were as much as two points due to stronger commodities and the Treasury's announcement of the price of gold which caused buying in goldmining shares. The list, however, eased off near the close of the session. Our New York Office cable (This Morning) Stocks: The market was dull, irregular and somewhat sensitive to the trend of commodities. A constructive viewpoint is still being held. Wheat: The market recovered from early weakness on excellent buying news and developments continue very bullish. Expect further recovery. Cotton: Although the market advanced temporarily after the issuance of the Government's crop estimate of 12,414,000 (August 8th—12,314,000) Bales the figures offered little inducement to new speculative buying and hedge offerings may be expected to continue. Silver: The market is dull with a firm undertone. Our New York Office cable (Last Night) Stocks: The market is dull, steady and featureless. Favourable and rising pending resumption of activity. Wheat: Liverpool colourless. Drought in Argentina is becoming more serious. The weakness in our market is due to lack of leadership and small buying power. The constructive side, however, is still favoured on further decline. Cotton: Unless the Government's crop estimate to-day is unexpectedly large or small do not anticipate much change in the market.

HUMAN DRAMA MYSTERIES

INCIDENTS WITHOUT EXPLANATION

London.

Three inexplicable human dramas are reported by Reuter Correspondents:—

Torn scraps of £1. and £5 notes were found littering the floor of a Capetown hotel bedroom beneath the swinging feet of a man found hanging by a window-cord from the fan-light.

He has been identified as a wealthy man from Rhodesia who had recently retired.

The mystery of a body trussed with barbed wire, weighted with heavy stones and stabbed three times with a stiletto through the heart, which has been found in the river Oise, is baffling the French police. The victim was well-known locally as a Don Juan.

He always carried a tiny metal motor mascot in his waistpocket. The mascot cannot be found.

A man of about 40, in a state of terrific agitation, rushed up to a tramp standing near the docks at Bordeaux and thrust a package of hundred franc notes into his hands. He then swallowed two

INVENTOR'S LATEST ACHIEVEMENT

Helsingfors.

Conversation between two house-flies has, according to its inventor, been successfully registered by a new type of sound-camera.

The inventor of the device is a young Norwegian student, Mr. Schnell-Larsen, and he demonstrated it at the Northern Entomological Congress in Oslo.

The apparatus used is so sensitive that it is able to register the beating of a fly's wings, even if they are moving at the rate of 10,000 beats per minute.

Mr. Schnell-Larsen also stated that he had successfully "listened-in" to insects who conversed by rubbing their feelers one against another. His instrument registered a perfectly distinct and varying tone scale.

He hoped that, in the near future, he would be in a position finally to solve the problem of the "language of insects" to the entire satisfaction of all scientists.—Reuter.

CAT WITH TWO WINGS

PUZZLES FELINE EXPERTS

London.

Cats with nine lives and cats-o-nine-tails are fairly common but Oxford has just produced a cat with two wings.

This fully grown black-and-white cat is in the Oxford Zoo and feline experts are astonished but baffled by the phenomenon.

Unless its owner can be found, the cat will be destroyed as the authorities believe the public do not like looking at pathetic freaks of this kind.

The "flying cat" was found in a loft near some stables at Summerton House, Oxford. It is perfectly normal in other respects—purrs, drinks milk and likes mice and fish.

But it has two wings, each four inches long, which are covered with black and white fur. It cannot actually fly but according to some reports it makes vague attempts to do so.—Reuter.

GORDON'S, LTD.

Ford Motor Company,

In answer to a lady's letter

Henry Ford
Dearborn, Mich.

A lady writes to say that she does not understand why an 8-cylinder car does not cost more to run than a car with fewer cylinders. She refers to my statement that our Ford V-8 develops more power on a gallon of gas than any car we have made.

The use of 8-cylinders does not mean the addition of two or four extra fuel consumers. It is not, for example, a 4-cylinder engine multiplied by two. Our 8-cylinder engine takes the fuel supply of an ordinary 4-cylinder engine and divides it eight ways. And why?

By reducing four larger explosions into eight smaller ones, we get engine smoothness and quietness. Eight-cylinders indicate the way the gas is used, not the amount. It is just the difference between going upstairs in four long jumps or in eight ordinary steps.

Two things use up gas—bad engine design and useless car weight. Besides having an engine that gets a high percentage of power out of the fuel, the Ford V-8 has a light, strong body and chassis so that no power is wasted in moving excess weight.

The only extravagance about the new Ford V-8 engine is in the building of it. The extravagance is ours—the economy is yours.

The whole question of car economy needs clearing up. An economical car gives economy all round. Price, operation, upkeep, all play their part. If what you save on gas you lose elsewhere, that is not economy.

As to upkeep, our dealers say that in recent years the improved quality of Ford cars has cut down their repair business 50 per cent.

As to price with quality,—judge for yourself.

As to economy, here is the record of a stock car three weeks out of shop in Oklahoma:

On a run of 10,054 miles at the rate of 1,000 miles a day—the Ford V-8 gave 18.8 miles per gallon of gas. Not a drop of water was added to the radiator. The oil was changed once in 1,000 miles.

That should answer a lot of questions.

WORLD CRISIS

A WAY OUT

By FREDERICK COPE, A.M.I.E.E.

Mr. Cope's striking articles on the world economic crisis which were recently published in the Hongkong Telegraph are now available in pamphlet form.

One of the features, repaying study, is the close similarity between the plan of reform suggested by this local writer, and certain aspects of the Roosevelt recovery programme. The author's ideas are naturally far too advanced for active promotion at the present time, but they are particularly interesting in view of the fact that President Roosevelt, in striking out on a path of his own, has travelled in the same direction.

The pamphlet is one of forty-four pages and can be obtained from the South China Morning Post at a cost of—

KENT CRICKETERS' FIELD DAY

WIN ALL
THE HONOURSAMES SCORES
201PLAYERS BEAT
GENTLEMENMITCHELL'S TWO HUNDREDS

London, Sept. 8.

Kent cricketers took all the honours in the match between the Players and Gentlemen which finished to-day in a victory for the Players by an innings and 46.

C. P. Johnstone and A.P.F. Chapman did most of the scoring for the Gentlemen, whilst Freeman (another 11 wickets), Ames (his third double century) and William Ashdown performed nobly for the winners.

Johnstone, an old Cambridge Blue, who has assisted Kent during the latter part of the season for the last six or seven years, has had very little practice this summer and his innings of 128 in the face of Freeman's effective bowling was an outstanding achievement.

He made his runs in the Gentlemen's first innings which totalled 311. Freeman's skill can thus be gauged when it is shown that in this innings he took 5 for 81.

LIGHT-HEARTED RESPONSE.

The Players responded very lightly. Ashdown and Ames became associated in a fast-scoring partnership, which eventually saw the former hit up 117 and the wicket-keeper-batsman help himself to his third double century of the season, reaching 201 before dismissal.

As a result the Players were able to declare at 552 for 8, leaving them 241 runs ahead on the first innings.

Freeman became very deadly when the Gentlemen batted a second time, and, capturing 6 for 74, sent them back for 195. Percy Chapman was the only batsman who could withstand the well directed attack, and his 68 was a brilliant effort.

RACE AGAINST CLOCK.

The M.C.C. Australian tourists and H. D. Leveson-Gower's XI played a drawn match at Scarborough, although the latter made a great effort to snatch a win and only the clock beat them.

When stumps were drawn they needed 24 runs with four wickets in hand.

The match was featured by the batmanship of Mitchell of Derbyshire, who obtained two separate hundreds.

Unfortunately Reuter do not reveal what his first innings score was, but he was unbeaten, as he was also in the second innings, when he scored exactly 100.

ANOTHER HENDREN 100.

The M. C. C. Australian XI batted first and compiled 349. Hendren, who has enjoyed one of the most successful seasons of his career, obtaining another 154.

Leveson-Gower's team replied strongly and finished within 40 of this score.

The tourists again made light of the opposition attack when they batted a second time and declared at 269 for 8, Sutcliffe hitting up 110 not out.

Leveson-Gower's team played forcing cricket in a grand effort to obtain the runs, and Mitchell was seen at his best in compiling 100 not out.

But the clock won a great race, leaving the game in an exciting state.—Reuter.

TO-DAY'S LAWN BOWLS

BOWLING GREEN'S OUTSIDE CHANGE OF WINNING THE "DOUBLE".

THE Kowloon Bowling Green Club second string have just one chance of pulling off the second-division championship of the lawn bowls league and thus achieving the "double" for the Club.

THEY must beat Craigengower to-day at Austin Road, and then have to rely on Civil Service taking points from the champions in the last match of the season.

If this should happen Craigengower and the Bowling Green would have to play off a deciding match.

It is a fairly forlorn quest, although it is more than likely the Kowloon team will win to-day. The full programme for this afternoon is:—

FRIENDLY HOCKEY.

St. Andrew's Club Suffers

First Defeat.

LOSES TO SIGNALS.

Missed opportunities told the tale in a fast friendly hockey match yesterday afternoon, when the St. Andrew's Club suffered its first defeat of the season at the hands of the Royal Corps of Signals by the odd goal in three on the latter's ground.

The Saints, who should have scored on several occasions, especially in the second half of the game, were without the services of N. A. E. Mackay, E. E. P. White and F. V. Wong. The Saints fielded a practically new eleven as compared with last season's team, the only old-stager in the defence being Cord, at centre-half.

The winners were inclined to take wild first-time hits with the consequence that many good passes went begging. The Saints' defence worked hard and Guest was a leading light. The first half was keenly contested and half time came with the score-sheet blank.

In the second half, the Saints pressed for a considerable period, and early on shots from Bliss and Barlow just missed their mark. Eventually, M. Wall gave them the lead. The Signals made several spirited attacks, from one of which Convey beat Wong to equalise. A ding-dong struggle ensued, Fincher missing one or two attempts for the Saints, when well placed. The soldiers made another burst through, and Austin, a newcomer on the left wing, netted a fine goal to give them victory. The civilians pressed hard to equalise but just failed. Whitehead put in some good defence work for the Signals.

The teams were as follows:
Signals:—Cross, Martin, Whitehead, Scott, Cord, Dilley, Bryce, Neale, Smith, Convey, Austin.

St. Andrew's:—R. H. Wong, F. A. Broadbridge, R. Woolley, E. MacNider, A. E. P. Guest, A. B. Hamson, G. Lee, P. J. Barlow, E. E. Fincher, A. S. Bliss, M. Wall.

EARLY TRAINING DESIRABLE.

The committee recommended to the Philippine Amateur Athletic Federation the holding of the national soccer meet in December to finish before the Christmas vacation and that the selection of the candidates for a berth in the P. I. Olympic team be made after the national championship so that the Philippine team could be assembled and begin actual training in January. It was suggested that the Philippine team play a practice game on the second Sunday of January.

Other recommendations made by the committee follow:

That the new Rizal football field should at least be 112 yards long and 76 yards wide.

That a sub-committee in Iloilo, Cebu and Legaspi be reappointed which will recommend candidates from these regions for the Philippine team.

The committee plans to be present at as many football games as possible to enable them to judge the ability of candidates for the Far Eastern team.

LADIES SECTION OF I.R.C.

SCHEME APPROVED YESTERDAY

BY THE ANNUAL MEETING

Mooted for sometime, the scheme of forming a Ladies' Section received formal approval at the annual general meeting of the Indian Recreation Club which was held last night at the Club's pavilion at Sookunpo.

The meeting was presided by Mr. A. el Arcuelli, who reported a satisfactory year's work although the Club had not repeated its former success in the sports field.

The following Report was submitted:

The year under review was not as successful as the season before. The Club lost all the four Shields it had won in Cricket and Tennis, but Members need not be disheartened as all the teams were entered put on a sporting fight in every department. We hope to do better next year, especially in Cricket, in its younger Members.

After many years, the Club entered a team in the Hongkong Lawn Bowls League, but it has not been very successful so far, having won but one game throughout the season. However, the players have gained a great deal of valuable experience, and should be able to give a very much better account of themselves next year. We wish them the best of luck.

Owing to several factors, we lost many Members during the year, which closed with 2 Honorary Members, 4 Life Members, 16 Associate Members, 10 Absent Members, 2 Temporary Members, and 108 Ordinary Members, making a total of 142 as compared with last year's total of 198.

Deaths.—It is with great regret that we have to record the death of Mr. Omar Ismail, one of our keenest cricketers, at a comparatively early age. Mr. Ismail had been a member of our 1st XI for a good number of years, and his absence from the field will be greatly missed. We take this opportunity of expressing our sympathy towards his widow and family.

The Club has also lost a great friend in the person of the late Mr. O. Kitchell, to whose family we also wish to express our sympathy.

DEFICIT SHOWN.

Finance.—The Working Account shows a deficit of $30.65.

Towards the end of the year, the Committee appointed a Finance Sub-Committee to devise ways and means whereby the Club funds could be augmented, and it was decided by this Sub-Committee to make several recommendations to the General Committee, one of which was to organise a Membership Campaign. Our membership is not sufficient, and it is to be hoped that the Campaign will contribute to the Club's welfare.

Cricket.—Both our 1st and 2nd XIs tried very hard to capture the Senior and Junior Shields for the third year in succession, but found the task too difficult for them. If it is any consolation to them, it may be added that the opposition was very strong. The 1st XI engaged in seven League matches, of which they won five and lost two, while of the nine League matches the 2nd XI were engaged in, they won only five, drew one and lost three. They were given a walk-over in another.

Mr. A. R. Minu headed the Batting averages in the 1st XI for the first time in his career with 16.28, and Mr. A. H. Madar was runner-up with 15.66. These figures will show the weakness of our batting which was caused to a big extent by the unsuitability of the pitch for practice.

In the bowling department, Mr. F. D. Pereira once again headed the averages, taking 38 wickets for only 6.15 runs apiece. Mr. A. R. Minu followed up his batting performances by taking 31 wickets during the year for 6.88 runs each.

The 2nd XI batting was headed by Mr. F. M. el Arcuelli with 24.00, while Mr. F. M. Madar, in his rare appearance registered an average of 21.60. Mr. A. H. Madar proved himself a tower of strength in the bowling by returning an average of 6.65, and Mr. A. R. Sufiad was a worthy runner up with 7.14.

Sunday League.—The Sunday Cricket League was again a boon to many of our cricketers who had not enjoyed a place in any of the Club's regular teams. Competition was not as keen as the year before owing to the one-sidedness of some of the games, but nevertheless all the matches proved most enjoyable. The Shield presented for competition by Messrs. Harry Wicking & Co. was won by the "Incogs" of which Mr. F. D. Pereira was skipper.

PLAYERS CONGRATULATED.
Tennis.—The loss of Mr. C. A. L. Rumjahn, who returned to Tientsin, was a serious handicap to the Club. Without his support, we failed to retain either of the "A" Division or the Dunlop (Mixed Doubles) Shields. We were runners-up in both these divisions, to the Chinese R. C. in the former and to the United Services Recreation Club in the latter.

The Committee congratulates Mr. S. A. Rumjahn on winning the Open Singles Championship of the Colony for the third time in his career and the second in successive years; Mr. J. A. Rumjahn on being runner-up; and Messrs. S. A. and H. D. Rumjahn on their wonderful record of carrying off the Doubles Championship of the Colony for the ninth year in succession.

Cups for the Doubles Championship were won outright by Messrs. S. A. and A. H. Rumjahn. Two more champagne cups for this event, which has always been very popular, would be Championship Event, which was made possible by a generous donation of a splendid Challenge Cup by Capt. K. B. Gove, of the Indian Medical Service. This was won by Mr. F. D. Pereira.

LAWN BOWLS

Lawn Bowls.—The Lawn Bowls green, which was formerly situated close to the nullah, was early in the year removed to the north-Western side of the ground. We have to thank Mr. B. A. Hyder for the amount of trouble and time he has devoted to the green.

During the 1932 season, we put in a team in the Second Division. Most of our representatives were playing in a League match for the first time and therefore lacked experience. They are, however, showing signs of improvement, and some play of high standard was seen in the Club's tournaments.

Ground.—The ground was in a rather poor condition immediately after the alterations to the lawn bowls green and the cricket pitch as the turf took sometime to grow properly, but as a result of the untiring efforts of Messrs. B. A. Hyder, A. R. Minu and S. A. R. Ismail, it is now in fairly good shape.

Sports Meeting.—A very successful Sports Meeting was held on the Club's grounds on 21st May, 1933. A large number of members and friends watched the various events on the programme with the keenest interest. Mr. S. A. Rumjahn once again demonstrated his versatility by winning the individual championship. Miss el Arcuelli presented the prizes at the conclusion of the meeting.

General.—The Committee wishes to thank all those who subscribed towards the Sports Fund, the donors of prizes, the Military Authorities for the loan of ground pots, and Messrs. A. Rahmin (Hon. Sports Secretary), S. A. Rumjahn (Hon. Secretary), H. Nazarin (Hon. Treasurer), and M. A. Abbas (Hon. Secretary), to whose hard work the success of the Meeting was due.

We have again to thank Mr. A. R. Sutherland for the gift of another bat for the season's best batting average in the 1st XI, and those others who so generously contributed to the cricket prizes.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS:

The following officers were elected:
President.—Mr. A. el Arcuelli.
Vice-President.—Mr. A. H. Rumjahn and Mr. Madar Singh.
Hon. Secretary.—Mr. A. R. Minu.
Hon. Treasurer.—Mr. R. Nazarin.
Captain of Cricket (1st XI).—Mr. A. H. Madar.
Vice-Captain.—Mr. A. R. Minu.
Captain of Cricket (2nd XI).—Mr. K. Nazarin.
Vice-Captain.—Mr. A. R. Abbas.
Captain of Tennis.—Mr. B. A. Rumjahn.
Captain of Lawn Bowls.—Mr. A. D. Dallah.
Committee.—Messrs. M. Y. Adali, Mr. R. Abbas, J. A. Guroomi, A. G. Sumad, A. Rahmin, A. K. Minu, H. el Arcuelli, A. R. Madar, H. Nazarin, D. Rumjahn, A. M. Wahab and M. A. Khan.

The meeting terminated with a vote of thanks to the chair.

CINEMA SCREENINGS

NOTES SUPPLIED BY THE THEATRES

In playing the title role in "Peg O' My Heart", Marion Davies faced the difficult task of essaying one of the most famous characterizations in the history of the theatre.

"I admit I was frightened to death at the very thought of playing Peg, as much as I have longed for years to make the picture,"
Miss Davies said in a recent interview. "It is hard enough to create a new character, but to play a part that has become a theatre tradition is still more difficult."

Robert Z. Leonard directed the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, which opens to-morrow at the Queen's Theatre. The cast includes Onslow Stevens, J. Farrell MacDonald and Juliette Compton.

"Dangerously Yours"

What happens when a charming young lady detective sets out to use her feminine wiles to ensnare a suave gentleman crook is the central theme of "Dangerously Yours", new Fox production which is showing at the King's theatre to-day.

Warner Baxter is starred in the role of the society thief and the beautiful Miriam Jordan, recent recruit from the Broadway and London stage, has the part of the girl sleuth employed by an insurance company to protect the jewels of its clients.

Herbert Mundin, popular comedian, as Baxter's partner in crime, contributes greatly to the hilarity of this fast-moving comedy drama.

Billion Dollar Scandal

A new film called "The Billion Dollar Scandal" was seen yesterday at the Queen's Theatre and proceeded,
in the course of its unrolling, to blow
the lid off senate investigations, stock manipulations, corruption in the seats of the mighty, and the whole topsy-turvy structure of a big-money ring which crumbles when one unimportant man dares to tell the truth. It is exciting melodrama and top-notch entertainment.

Harry Joe Brown, the director, has done an extraordinary job in maintaining the swift pace of the story.
But he has been greatly aided by a brilliant performance on the part of Robert Armstrong in the role of Fingers, and by magnificent work by the others in the cast, including, in addition to Morgan, Robertson and Miss Cummings, Olga Baclanova,
James Gleason, Irving Pichel, Warren
Hymer, Hale Hamilton, Dorothy
Peterson, Claude Gillingwater, Ralf
Harold, Bertton Churchill and Sidney Toler.

"It's Great to Be Alive"

A world with only one man is the theme of "It's Great To Be Alive", the Fox musical comedy which last week Raul Roulien as a star on the screen and comes to the King's Theatre on Sunday. The picture, the cast of which includes a thousand

CANTON-NANKING QUARREL

snake of conformity with Kuomint-tang procedure, it would be more appropriate for the Southern leaders to submit their views in this connexion directly to the Central Executive Council.

2. The Central Political Council has already decided that the American Loan should be spent in productive enterprises. Detailed regulations are being considered and will be published shortly. It is recalled that General Chiang and Mr. Wang, in an earlier telegram, solemnly declared the money would not be employed for military purposes.

3. The Sino-Japanese Truce Agreement has already been published, and there are absolutely no secret annexes.

4. The reorganisation of the troops in Chahar is proceeding pace, with the exception of the forces of Generals Chi Hengchang and Fang Chen-wu, who are obviously Communists. The other troops in the Province have been reorganised and their commanders given Government appointments.—Reuter.

KULING CONFERENCE.

Internal Economy
Discussed.

Shanghai, Sept. 8.

Among the matters discussed at the Kuling Conference yesterday was the proposed expansion of the functions of the Central Economic Council in order to enable the Council to exercise control and supervision over all finances and the economic developments of the country.

In consequence, it is felt the existing Finance Ministry can be of Hollywood's most beautiful and shapely girls depicts the world in 1938, after maseullitis has swept the globe clear of men—with the single exception of Raul Roulien, who has been living as a castaway on a desert island. How this lone young man meets and copes with the situation is said to provide some of the picture's most interesting and colourful action.

Featured with Roulien are Gloria
Stuart, Edna May Oliver, Herbert
Mandin, Dorothy Burgess, Joan
Marsh and Emma Dunn, Alfred Werker, who made "Rackety Rax" and "Bachelor's Affairs" directed
"It's Great To Be Alive."

JEWISH THRUST.

CONFERENCE SUPPORTS
GERMAN BOYCOTT

Geneva, Sept. 8.

A resolution declaring economic and other relations with Germany were impossible as long as the persecution of the Jews in Germany continued, was adopted by a committee of the Jewish World Conference here to-day.

The resolution urged that the boycott of Germany should not be abandoned until the Jews in Germany are restored in full to the status they enjoyed prior to the advent of the Hitler regime.

Jewish organisations in London held a meeting last night to consider measures for intensifying the boycott. One plan is for the formation of a detective force to watch how tradesmen are carrying out the anti-German programme.—Reuter.

dispensed with or reduced to a bureau with limited powers over financial matters.—Reuter.

Back in Shanghai.

Shanghai, Sept. 8.
Mr. T. V. Soong, Finance
Minister, accompanied by Dr.
H. H. Kung, arrived here at 1.30 p.m. to-day aboard the cruiser Changshan from the conference of Government leaders which was held at Kuling.—Reuter.

OFFICIAL SILENCE.

End of Conference Believed Near.

Nanking, Sept. 8.

While officials here are maintaining complete reticence regarding the outcome of the Kuling Conference, the parley seems to be drawing to an end. This is indicated by the departure of Mr.
T. V. Soong, Mr. Sun Fo and Dr.
H. H. Kung from the summer resort.

Mr. Sun Fo, who arrived in Nanking at noon by air, attended a meeting of the Legislative Yuan at 3 p.m. Mr. Soong and Dr.
Kung left for Shanghai on board
the Chinese cruiser Chungshan.

It is reported that Mr. Soong's departure from Kuling was necessitated by urgent affairs in Shanghai, presumably in connection with the reported loan negotiation with Shanghai bankers, with a view to providing funds for flood relief.

The discussions are still being carried on at Kuling between Mr.
Wang Chi-wai, General Chiang Kai-shek and other leaders, but it is probable that the major decisions have already been reached.—Reuter.

KING FEISAL'S
SUDDEN DEATHHEART ATTACK IN SWITZERLAND

ROMANTIC FIGURE

Berne, Switzerland, Sept. 8.
The Emir Feisal, King of Iraq, died in his hotel here at 2 o'clock this morning.
Amir Ghazi, the twenty-one-year-old son of the late ruler, was crowned in Baghdad to-day.
The body of King Feisal has been embalmed and leaves Brindisi aboard a British warship, which will carry the remains to Haifa on September 10 and from there Royal Air Force machines will bear the casket to Baghdad, via Jerusalem.

The sudden death, which followed a heart attack, came as a shock to Europe. Following serious disorders in his country, King Feisal returned home in August after a holiday in England, and had only just returned to Switzerland.

King Feisal, who was very ill when he left Baghdad at the end of August to resume his health cure in Switzerland, interrupted by the Assyrian revolt. His doctors insisted at that time that he should be spared the heat of a summer in Iraq.

Forty-Six Years Old.

King Feisal was born in 1887 and educated at Mecca and Constantinople. He was the third son of the Arab chief Hussein, formerly a member of the Turkish Senate, who shook off his allegiance to Turkey during the World War and was proclaimed by British King of the Hedjaz.

Feisal himself took a similar course. Up to the spring of 1916, he was on the staff of Djemal Pasha, Turkish Commander-in-Chief in Syria, but escaped to Mecca when Hussein raised the flag of revolt there. He then became leader of the Arab forces which co-operated with the British troops.

In the spring of 1921, he proceeded to Baghdad, where the British High Commissioner, Sir Percy Cox, received him with royal honours. He was proclaimed King of Iraq and the choice was confirmed by a plebiscite in which 95 per cent of the population voted in favour of him.

King Feisal visited England a few months ago on holiday. He was met by His Majesty, Prince George and members of the Royal family as he alighted from the boat train.

As the two Kings passed through the streets of London to Buckingham Palace they received a great ovation from the crowd.

In the middle of his holiday, King Feisal received word from Iraq of threatened disturbances between his troops and Assyrians on the northern frontier. A few weeks later hostilities broke out when a band of Assyrians crossed into Iraq.

The Assyrians were utterly routed and allegations have since been made that the Iraqis perpetrated a terrible massacre. Two villages, it was said, were wiped out by Feisal's troops, drunk with victory.

On the complaint of the Patriarch of the Assyrians, the matter was taken up by the League of Na-

CONTRACT
BRIDGE

By W. E. McKenney

Until a few years ago an original bid of one no trump simply showed an average hand—a hand containing from two and one-half to three and one-half high card tricks and no biddable suit. To-day, however, among the better contract players an original bid of one no trump is only made with an exceptionally fine hand.

One must remember that high card tricks alone are not enough to justify an original one no trump bid. The hand, in addition, should have some tenace position—in other words, it should be in a position to gain a possible trick on the opening lead.

Another point I want to bring out in to-day's hand is that against a slam contract, you should be careful not to lead away from what may prove to be a trick. Try to make an opening which you know will not hurt your hand.

The Bidding

South opened the contracting with one no trump. West passed and North bid two no trump. South then went to three no trump and North, with his ace and two

"BROWN BOOK" REVIEWED

Author Unknown: Lord Marley's Preface

BRITISH PRESS RECEPTION

London, Sept. 1.
The English edition of the "Brown Book" which aims at revealing the extent and magnitude of atrocities allegedly perpetrated by the present regime in Germany, had a very mixed reception from the British press.

The book, published by a well-known Jewish firm, bears no name as to the responsible author, but the short preface to it is signed by Lord Marley, the socialist labour member of the House of Peers, who is at present in Shanghai to organise peace in the Far East. The book produces many photographs and documentary texts which bear unmistakable evidence of wilful forgery.

It stands to reason that the Socialist Daily Herald and the Liberal Chronicle declare the book to be a "revelation" and assert that Professor Einstein, although not named, is directly concerned in its production.

The Times, Daily Mail, and Daily Telegraph do not mention the book at all, while the Daily Express says that the so-called "pictures and documents" vividly recall the notorious illustrated atrocity propaganda against Germany sent out during the World War.

Communist Agency Alleged

The Conservative Morning Post says that the book does not work against Germany but in favour of those who are fighting for a vindication of Germany. "Ere such proof," says the paper, "can make any serious impression, it is necessary to know where the pictures and photostatic copies really come from. The first chapter shows unmistakably that Communist forces are behind the publication. This fact alone is discrediting the whole work. Assertions that do not originate from thoroughly trustworthy sources and are not clearly and completely proved," concludes the Morning Post, "must naturally awaken mistrust. Rational minded readers will be rather inclined to sympathise with Hitler than with his accusers."

London, Sept. 2.
Mr. D. McB. McLachlan, formerly of the Shanghai Dock & Engineering Co., has been appointed manager of the Liverpool works of Messrs. Beardmore.

Mr. McLachlan was assistant manager at the Shanghai Dock & Engineering Works from 1920 to 1923, and was particularly concerned with the shipbuilding side of the undertaking. The Liverpool works, to which he now has been appointed are the ship-repairing yards of the famous shipbuilding firm of William Beardmore & Co.
